WEDDING BUDGET REPORT

 Budget Breakdown

VENUE & STAY

₹3,20,000

For 200 guests at a destination, this budget necessitates choosing a very economical venue in a lesser-known destination or a property that requires minimal decor. It's highly unlikely to cover full accommodation for all guests; plan to cover event space rental and perhaps stay for immediate family only, with guests covering their own travel and accommodation.

FOOD & CATERING

₹2,70,000

This budget allows for approximately ₹1350 per guest. This means focusing on a single main meal (e.g., wedding dinner) with a decent but not lavish buffet spread, or two simpler meals. Prioritize local cuisine to save costs and negotiate package deals with the venue.

DECORATION

₹1,60,000

PHOTOGRAPHY

₹1,00,000

OUTFITS & MAKEUP

₹80,000

This amount covers the bride's makeup and hair for 1-2 main events by a mid-range artist, and possibly a contribution towards or a very simple outfit for the couple. Consider sourcing outfits from local designers or smaller boutiques.

MISCELLANEOUS

₹70,000

This crucial buffer covers unforeseen expenses, small logistics (like local transport, permits), vendor travel not included in quotes, or small guest favours. It's essential to have a contingency fund, especially for destination weddings where unexpected costs can arise.

Expert Summary

This is an extremely tight budget for a destination wedding with 200 guests, implying significant compromises. Guests will likely need to cover their own travel and stay, and the wedding itself will be simple and elegant, focusing on core elements rather than luxury or extensive experiences.
